Rep. Anielski to Host Military Resource Fair in Broadview Heights on April 20th

COLUMBUS—State Representative Marlene Anielski (R-Walton Hills) is joining with the City of Broadview Heights, the Broadview Heights Chamber of Commerce, and the Broadview Heights branch of the Cuyahoga County Public Library to host a Military Resource Fair for the benefit of all of our veterans and their families on Friday, April 20th.

The event will take place at the Broadview Heights Community Center and will feature a variety of organizations geared towards helping those who have served our country in any era, their spouses, and families. Throughout the day there will be agency representatives who can help military personnel or their families with benefit questions, employment opportunities, and many other military related areas. The event is completely free and open to the public. Free continental breakfast, Veteran ID's, haircuts, massages, and additional offers will be available to those in attendance.

Date: Friday, April 20th, 2018

Time: 9am-12pm

Location: Broadview Heights Community Center (9543 Broadview Road, Broadview Heights)

Bring: DD 214 or NGB 22 discharge papers. If discharge papers are not available, please bring the social security card of the military personnel.

"All of our military personnel have given personal sacrifices in leaving their loved ones to protect our freedoms," Rep. Anielski said. "It is my intention to make sure that all those who have served, no matter in what capacity and no matter what era, are aware of the benefits and services available to them during the Military Resource Fair."
